VICTORY DRIVE YIELDS 18,000

More Than 100 Persons Engaged in House to House Canvass

HALF OF QUOTA SOLD

Appeal Made For All Persons to Purchase Victory Bonds as Drive Will End This Week.

Victory Bonds amounting to $18,000 were sold yesterday afternoon as a result of the two hours' drive made by more than 100 canvassers.

This city's allotment is only half sold thus far and this marks the closing week of the drive.

Up to the hour of closing of the banks Saturday the total subscriptions reported were $237,500.

This together with the $18,000 sold yesterday brings the grand total up to exactly $255,500. Alexandria, therefore, had sold only about one-half of her quota.

An urgent appeal is made by the local committee of which Robert S. Jones is chairman for all persons who have not yet purchased Victory Bonds to do so at once in order to help Alexandria go over the top as she has done in all previous bond drives.

The various committees in charge of the drive are hard at work and are anxious that Alexandria make a showing commensurate with the results of the previous bond drives.

A meeting of the local committee is being held this afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

LAWS TO STOP "REDS"

Immigrants Likely to Be Barred from America for One to Four Years

The bomb plot on the lives of public men has given impetus to the demands among Congressmen for strong laws restricting radicals in this country.

Indications are that among the first measures presented in the new Congress will be one stopping immigration for from one to four years. This is designed to keep out Bolshevik propagandist and all manner of "reds" from foreign countries.

Representative Burnett, of Alabama author of such a bill in the last session, has announced his intention of reintroducing it. Burnett was one of those to whom a bomb was sent.

Twenty-five thousand missionaries of the reds now are exerting every effort to blow into revolutionary flame in every section of the United States, according to information gathered by Federal authorities.

This number includes only those professional apostles of the proletariat movement who give their entire time to the "cause." It is regarded as a conservative estimate by secret agents of one department whose functions bring it into touch with the "left" wing.

Converts and sympathizers of red teachings number additional thousands daily, say officials.

"Red" preachers are urging overthrow of the United States government and the setting up of a proletariat republic, according to information in official sources.

WOMAN FOULLY MURDERED

Naked Body Found in Garden Off Town's Main Street.

Barre, Vt., May 5.—The naked body of Mrs. Harry E. Broadwell, 29 years old, and the mother of three children, was found in a garden off North Main street early Saturday, with the throat bound tightly with a man's handkerchief and the hands, still in kid gloves, bound tightly at the back. Death was by strangulation, according to the police, whose theory is that the woman was murdered in a near-by building and the body dragged to the garden before daybreak.

Beside the body were found the woman's watch and hat, and 20 feet away her open pocketbook, which was empty. Close by were found all the articles of clothing, except the shoes and stockings, which were on the body. Dr. H. B. Stone, of the State Laboratory of Hygiene, performed an autopsy, but did not make public his report.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear brother, Andrew J. Davis, who departed this life one year ago today, May 5, 1918.
Call not back the dear departed
Anchored safe when storms are o'er,
On the border land we left him
Soon to meet and part no more.
Out in a lonely spot he sleeps,
The sleep of peace on earth,
And the birds now sing sweet lullabys,
While our brother rests in peace.
By his devoted brother,

WOMAN STRUNG TO GAS JET

Victim Only Knows She Was Attacked and Strangled by Unseen Assailant

Ogontz, Pa., May 5.—Confronted with one the most mysterious cases in the history of the Ogontz police department, Chief Hallowell has several persons under surveillance pending definite developments.

Mrs. Mary Denkins, 24 years old, of Edge Hill, was found in the room she occupied at the home of Mrs. William Dade in a semi-conscious condition. The police say "a sheet was wrapped tightly around her neck and she was hanging suspended from a gas jet, with her hands tied behind her back in such manner that it would have been an impossibility for her to have tied the knots herself."

The woman, found by Mrs. Nancy Burgess, was taken to the Abington Hospital, where her condition is regarded as serious.

According to the story told the police by Mrs. Denkins, she fell asleep on a couch after her husband had gone to work and was awakened by someone wraping her in the folds of a heavy towel, tied her arms behind her back, and, after twisting the sheet about her neck, suspended her from the gas jet. Her skirt had been set on fire, about six inches of the lower portion being burned away.

Mrs. Dade, with whom the Denkins family lived and who, the police say, left the house about 15 minutes before the Denkins woman was found, was arrested on suspicion. Ruby Barnes, another woman, with whom Mrs. Denkins is said to have quarreled, was arrested at Mont Clair, N. J. They were released after preliminary hearings before Magistrate Hellerman but are still under surveillance.

Chief Hallowell is puzzled by the conflicting aspects of the case, inclining to the theory that a real attempt was made to murder the woman. He scouts the attempted suicide theory on the basis that the knots securing Mrs. Denkins' hands were of such type that she could not have tied them herself. All parties identified with the peculiar mixup are negroes.

ROBBED WHILE THEY SLEEP

Bold Burglar Takes Diamond Ring From Finger of Mrs. Jos. Nowland

MAY HAVE USED DRUG

Also Gets Away With $119 and Gold Watch Valued at $55—Escapes Without Arousing Victims.

While Joseph Nowland and his wife slept this morning at their home on Windsor Ave., Del Ray, a robber entered and after stealing $119 from the pocket of the trousers of Mr. Nowland, which were hanging across the back of a chair the burglar also carried away his gold watch valued at $55 and then beat all robbers in this section when he removed a diamond ring valued at $80 from the finger of Mr. Nowland's wife without arousing either Mrs. Nowland or her husband.

The robber effected an entrance by means of a rear window. He first took a chair he found on a back porch and entered the window which was raised and then stealthily made his way to their bed chamber.

A daughter of Mr. Nowland, Miss Virginia Nowland, saw a man pass through the hall adjoining her bed chamber, at 3 o'clock this morning. She, however, thought the party was her father and gave no further attention to the matter until the robbery was discovered this morning.

It was 7 o'clock this morning when Mr. and Mrs. Nowland discovered that they had been robbed.

Mr. Nowland stated this afternoon to a representative of the Gazette that he and his wife must have been chloroformed by the robber, otherwise he thought they would have been aroused from their slumbers by the presence of the intruder.

Absolutely no trace of the robber has been found thus far.

DIES IN FRANCE

Homer H. Van Wie, executive secretary of the Alexandria War Camp Community Service, has just returned from a two weeks' vacation spent at his home in Indianapolis, Indiana, and while there received notification that his son, William Homes Van Wie, 23 years old, private in the 310th Infantry, 78th Division, and died in the Base Hospital at Vannes, Morbihan, France, after having undergone an operation for appendicitis, death occurring April 2, 1919. He tried to enlist in his home city, Indianapolis, early after the war was declared but was turned down owing to the fact of his having "flat feet," but he was taken later in the draft and sent to Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, during the month of June, 1918 and in August of the same year was transferred to Camp Mills, Hoboken, New Jersey, and soon after was sent to France. Owing to the intensive training given the men on arrival there he was continued in the training camp until the armistice was signed and consequently did not see actual service. Letters from the captain in charge of the base hospital, the nurse in charge of his case and a "Buddie" lying next him in the hospital prove that everything was done for him that could be during his illness.

Carter Glass Makes Appeal In Support of Victory Loan

By CARTER GLASS

"The Victory Liberty Loan campaign is two-thirds over but subscriptions have been reported for little more than one-third of the loan. Is it conceivable that the American people who, with heart and soul, waged the fight for freedom, will permit this loan of victory and thanksgiving to fail? Our sons gave of their health, of their strength and of their loves that freedom might not perish.

"There are 1,500,000 American boys in France and Germany. Now that the war is ended it would be as reasonable for them to dishonor the nation by deserting the flag as for the nation to dishonor itself by deserting them. It is a large thing that we are now asked to lend our money to pay the cost of victory? Is American money less willing than American manhood?

"Let every one of the millions who have bought liberty bonds buy Victory notes and success is sure."

PRETTY WEDDING AT UNIVERSITY

Of much interest to society here and throughout the State was the marriage, last evening, of Miss Sue Gordon Dabney and Lieut. Albert Stuart Bolling, of this city.

The wedding, which took place at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Kent, on West Lawn, at the University, was a quiet affair, owing to recent bereavement in the families of both contracting parties.

The parlors were profusely decorated with dogwood and flowers of early spring, and presented a beautiful background for the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. H. B. Lee, of the Episcopal Church.

The bride was attended by Miss Jean Galt Kinney, of New York, who acted as maid-of-honor. They were met at the improvisel altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Bartlett Bolling, Jr. Judge A. D. Dabney, of this city, gave his sister's hand in marriage.

The bride's gown was of white crepe meteor, and her tulle veil was caught with orangle blossoms. Her bouquet consisted of Easter lilies and lillies of the valley. She wore no ornaments, but was married with her great grandmother's wedding ring.

Miss Kinney, the maid-of-honor who has just been mustered out of the Naval Reserves, wore a becoming dress of turquoise blue, and carried Sunset roses.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony, after which Lieutenant and Mrs. Bolling left on the Memphis Special for New York City where the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride is a daughter of the late Prof. Walter D. Dabney, for years a member of the law faculty of the University of Virginia, and her marriage to Lieut. Bolling unites two of the most prominent families in the State. She is an accomplished young lady and a leader in the younger social set of the University. The popularity of both bride and groom was attested to by the handsome wedding gifts they received.

Lieut. Bolling is a son of Major Bartlett Bolling, formerly of Petersburg, and until he was honorably discharged a short time ago was personnel officer at Washington and Lee University. He is a graduate of the law school of the University of Virginia and a young attorney of rare promise—Charlottesville Progress—May 1.

SUGGESTS HIGHER TAX

C. Lee Moore Would Levy $50 Yearly on Roadsters and $75 on Larger Cars.

A new plan of taxation through which automobile owners would be assessed approximately $6,000,000 a year is suggested by C. Lee Moore, State Auditor of Public Accounts, in a statement issued yesterday.

The new taxes would range from $50 on roadsters and light trucks to $75 on the larger cars and trucks.

In addition to these taxes, Mr. Moore would have the State levy an additional tax of $2 upon every male adult.

The automobile tax would be applied directly to road construction, and the special capitation tax to road maintenance. The sums collected he would have utilized to meet the Federal road appropriation conditions.

THANKSGIVING LOAN

Committees laboring in the interests of the Victory Loan made a house-to-house canvass of the city yesterday. There is no one in Alexandria at present who is not acquainted with the appeal which is made to every American. The war has been won, but the nation needs money now as it did a year ago when America was fighting the Huns. There is no need of going into details. Much has yet to be done, one important work being the maintenance and transportation to their homes of the millions of our boys who braved the uncertainties of the Atlantic and marched with the allied armies literally up to the cannon's mouth. Fifty thousand of these brave ones will never return. But the great bulk of Americans will. The Victory Loan will accelerate the work of bringing them back to the homes they left last year. We are called upon to do our part towards this great desideratum.

The Gazette for months has been announcing the return of Alexandrians from "over there." Their reappearance in their home city has sent joy and gladness into many households, while their friends and acquaintances have felt like doing them more reverence than merely shaking their hands. In the words of a popular song, brought to the birth during the war, "We want them back again."

As Secretary Glass puts it, the Victory Loan should be regarded as a thanksgiving loan, and expression of our sincere appreciation of the goodness of the God of Battles who has returned our dear ones to us safe and sound.

In these days of high wages and a plethora of money most of us can afford to take one bond, at least.

Ministers of this city yesterday in their sermons placed the duty of buying bonds upon their hearers. Pro Deo ea pro patrie (For God and country) should be the motto of every person over which the Star-Spangled is waving.

TAX ON LUXURIES

The average man and woman have never realized until now, how luxurious their tastes are says an exchange. "The new war revenue act has done that for us, anyway. Here we've been going along what we were pleased to consider our humdrum way, buying only the things that seemed to us no more than bare necessities, and all of a sudden the Government tags us and puts us in the luxurious class.

"The women may be flattered—or they may not—to find that they are several degrees above mere man in this. But the militant among them might retort, and with some justice, that the taxes have been imposed by a mere man-made law, and that the women haven't been fairly treated. At any rate, it's a fact that the luxury tax hits woman's finery, beauty lotions and other such things a terrific wallop. But besides that, it takes pennies from the pocketbooks of nearly every plain man, woman and child.

"There may have been a time when candy, ice cream, chocolate sundaes and such were luxuries, but everybody knows they're absolute necessities now. If you have been so fortunate as to find a place where a sundae could be had of late for 15 cents, it now "sets you back" 17 cents. And candy? Nobody knows how high that may go. If you're a neat man—not necessarily dressy or fussy—and have developed a fondness for smoking jackets, house coats or boathrobes, you'll pay a coats or bathrobes, you'll pay a tax on such articles costing more any for less?"

WAR CAMP COMMUNITY

The War Camp Community Service is an aftermath of the war just closing. It provides a rendezvous for ex-soldiers and sailors and marines, a place where such can gather and engage in innocent pastimes or improvement of mind through books and other literature. Alexandria was quick to inaugurate a community service, and it has long been the abode of many discharged soldiers who are still among us. It is located in Elks' Hall, near the southeast corner of Prince and Royal streets.

Many men now being mustered out of service and returning to civilian clothes protest that they do not wish to give up their privileges at War Camp Community Service clubs and canteens. Accordingly, a pin has been provided as a permanent identification for men no longer in service. Cards and other devices have been tried, but have not been wholly satisfactory, and careful inquiry has indicated that this badge will fill the need.

The pin is handsomely made of sterling silver with the rim bearing in enamel the familiar "red circle" and the words, "War Camp Community Service." Within the circle is a blue star on white ground. Eventually this pin, in addition to providing the wearer with an entrance badge to clubs, etc., will be recognized all over the country as marking a former soldier, sailor or marine.

A nominal sum of ten cents to cover part of the expense of the pins is charged, and any enlisted man may purchase one. As each pin is bought the name and home address of the purchaser is recorded by W. C. C. S., so that the pin shall not get into wrong hands.

War Camp Community Service has issued the following directions to community organizers who are to distribute the pins.

The pin is to be worn only by men who have been in service.

Such men are to receive the pin only when in uniform, or on presentation of their discharge papers.

The supply is to be carefully kept so that none will get into improper hands.

The pin is to be a permanent badge of admission to War Camp Community Service Clubs and a permanent identification of service men who are out of uniform.

The pins can be obtained at the War Camp Community Club House in this city.

CONFERENCE BEARS FRUIT

Italy Will be Back in the Conference in Time to Sign Peace With Germany

Paris, May 5.—There was a strong report current here yesterday afternoon that the last few days' conferences between allied and Italian officials have borne fruit and that Italy will be back in the Peace Conference in time to sign peace with Germany.

Officially nothing had been said in the matter up to this cabling, but the atmosphere at all peace mission headquarters is decidedly optimistic.

Fiume, it should be remembered, is not mentioned in the German peace treaty, and there is nothing to prevent Italy from signing that document, leaving final decision of the Dalmatian problem for the settlement with Austria.

If Italy comes back this will be due chiefly to the untiring mediatory efforts of Premier Lloyd George.

The peace treaty with Germany is now in the hands of the printer. The last touches were put on it by the "big three" last evening.

President Wilson is known to believe the document will be ready to hand the German delegates not later than Tuesday, though one strong version is this will not happen till the end of the week.

In the fifteen days which the Germans will have to consider the terms, the "big five," including, it is hoped, Italy, will take up the matter of peace with Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey. An unconfirmed report has it that Austria already has been invited to send delegates. If Italy does not return, the other allies and America seem determined to sign the peace with Germany without her.

WILL FACE TRIAL TUESDAY

Morris Arrives at Charlottesville Today and Will Spend Night in Jail There.

Edgar Morris, who is alleged to have shot to death Magistrate Bluford G. Sullivan in the little courthouse at Stanardsville, Greene Co., will be taken tomorrow to the scene of the murder to stand trial in the Circuit Court.

The mountain boy will arrive at Charlottesville today in custody of Sheriff Malone, who was called to Elkins, W. Va., after Morris had been captured in a restaurant at that place. He will be kept in the Charlottesville jail over night and escorted across country to Stanardsville the next morning.

Judge John W. Fishburne, of the Circuit Court of Greene County, will convene court about 11 o'clock. Morris' case probably will be the first on the docket. Hartmon Shiflett, the boy indicted as the accomplice of Morris in the Sullivan shooting, probably will be tried also at this term.

Advices from Charlottesville last night were to the effect that troops will not be present this time when court convenes to try the Morris case. The capture of the alleged murderer relieves the authorities, it is said, of the necessity of having military protection, since the chief object of concern to court officials was Morris himself, who is reported to have threatened to come down from the mountains and "shoot up" the court.

The situation in Greene County, it is said, is not such as will force the court to allow a change of venue. All indications are that Morris will face a jury of the vicinity in which the shooting occurred and in the courthouse in which he is alleged to have shot to death the magistrate.

Big lot sale in Rosemont continues. See our display ad this issue. F. C. Goodnow Company agents for trustee. 107-1t.

3224 LYNCHED

Of These, 11 Were White Women and 50 Were Colored Women

New York, May 5.—In the last 50 years 3224 persons have been put to death by mobs, according to a report made public by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

For the 30-year period from 1889 through 1918 the North has had 219 victims, the South 2834, the West 156 and Alaska and other localities 15.

"Georgia leads in the list with 386 victims," says the report, 'followed closely by Mississippi, with 373 victims; Texas, with 335; Louisiana, with 313; Alabama, with 276; Arkansas, with 214; Tennessee, with 196; Florida, with 178 and Kentucky, with 169.

"Fifty colored women and 11 white women were lynched in 14 States. Thirteen of the 15 States in which women fell victims to mobs were Southern States, Nebraska being the only State outside the South which lynched women. The North and West together have lynched 21 persons during the last five-year period, whereas during the same time 304 persons were lynched in the South."

FURNACES MAY SHUT DOWN.

Government's Price Ruling And Higher Freight Hits Virginia

Roanoke, Va., May 5.—All iron furnaces in Tennessee and all except two in Virginia will be forced to shut down immediately, unless the government fixed price on pig iron is increased, according to a statement from an authoritative source.

Increased freight rates and the reduced pig iron prices recently fixed by the government are given as the causes of the shut down. Sixty per cent of the Virginia and Tennessee plants use Lake Superior ore, and under the present freight rates, it is said, the plants are operating at considerable loss.

Several furnaces in Virginia are reported to have already closed. Furnaces of Pulaski and Padiford are preparing to close within a few days.

COAL, LUMBER AND BUILDING MATERIALS

W. A. SMOOT & CO. INC.

Your Next Winter's Coal

We do not know what the price of coal will be next Fall and Winter, as the retail price is governed by the price at the mines and the freight.

Our understanding of the present program is that Anthracite coal will advance ten cents a ton a month from May 1st to September 1st, and although we think this program will probably be carried out yet we are not sure of this.

We do know that THE MINES CANNOT PRODUCE, THE RAILROADS CANNOT HAUL AND THE DEALERS CANNOT HANDLE nearly enough coal during the Fall and Winter months to take care of an ordinary Winter's demand.

This means that coal will have to be mined, transported and delivered during the Spring and Summer to avoid a serious shortage next Fall and Winter.

We advise our customers to take these facts into consideration and order a reasonable supply of coal now.

SLAYER STILL AT LARGE

Mystery Deepens in Fiendish Murder of Pretty Teacher

Latrobe, Pa., May 5.—Police today were no nearer a solution of the mystery surrounding the brutal murder of Miss Emma Austraw, pretty 19 year old school teacher, whose mutilated body was found wedged into a vault on an abandoned farm here.

Citizens and police searched throughout Saturday night without unearthing a clue to the identity of the girl's murderer. Police stated today their belief that two men had committed the crime.

Chief of Police Joseph W. Stahl declared he has two witnesses who saw the Austraw girl leave the school house last Monday afternoon and enter an automobile containing two men.

The police theory is that she was acquainted with the occupants of the car and that she accepted their invitation for a ride. It is believed she was the overpowered and outraged. The coroner declared she had been dead forty-eight hours when the body was discovered by a boy scout.

Four men are being held by the police in connection with the crime, but it was said yesterday that there was no evidence of a conclusive nature against them.

Westmoreland County authorities yesterday offered a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the arrest of the murderer or murderers.

Miss Austraw, was teacher at Derry township, school No. 8.

UPRISING AT SOFIA

Revolutionists Rebel Against Saxe-Coburg Dynasty.

Berlin, May 5.—A rebellion against the Coburg dynasty at Sofia is reported in a dispatch to the Acht Uhr Abendblatt. Sanguinary fighting has been going on between Government troops and revolutionists, who demand a Soviet government.

Ferdinand, the former King of Bulgaria, is a member of the House of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. He was a son of Prince August of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. Official notification of his abdication was published in November, 1918. Later he was reported to have arrived at Coburg and to have asked permission of the Swiss authorities to reside in Switzerland.

THEATRES

INGOMAR THEATRE

"The Tiger's Trail," Episode 1, which will be shown tonight at the Ingomar Theatre is a serial of Western interest in fifteen sensational weekly episodes. It contains a continual succession of "punchy" scenes and situations; not just loosely strung together as a series of disconnected incidents, but with a splendid story of romantic and thrilling interest, continued from episode to episode in logical sequence, keeping the "serial fans" in continual suspense until the very last foot of the last reel of the fifteenth episode.

Wm. S. Hart will also be shown in the western drama, "Breed of Men."

Richmond—"For Better, for Worse,"

Cecil B. DeMille's newest Artcraft production, "For Better, For Worse," which will be shown at the Richmond Theatre tonight, is unusual in many ways, as all the DeMille special productions are. One of the most unique things about it is that it has no villian.

All the characters are real human beings, grappling with human situations, and the sympathy of the audience goes cut to every one of them, in spite of their mistakes and rash actions. The picture deals with the most vital of modern problems raised by the war, which are now engaging in public attention.
